

Road-trip to Lasithi Plateau: Krasi Village, Lasinthos Eco Park, Vidiani Monastery & Olive Mill Farm

Short Description:

This tour will give travelers the opportunity to explore some interesting places at the Plateau of Lasithi, the area where Zeus was born according to the mythology. Situated at 850 meters above the sea level, the plateau of Lasithi has the largest agricultural production in Crete. There are 18 villages nestled in the surrounding mountains of the plateau. The visitors can admire a panoramic drive through the plateau, the Monastery of Vidiani, Lasinthos Eco Park and the traditional village of Krasi. Afterwards, the visitors will experience a guided tour at an Olive Mill Farm to see the production of olive oil soap, olive oil etc. Next, there will be an unforgettable meal (at their own expense) with local products, unique aromas from the surrounding wild mountains as well as picturesque views of the Aegean Sea.
